SYRUP OF FIGS FOR CROSS, SICK FEVERISH CHILD

LITTLE STOMACH IS SOUR LIVER TORPID OR BOWELS CLOGGED.

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly maked liver gets slugbecome tightly packed, liver gets slug-gish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated, then give this delic-ious "fruit laxative." Children love it, and it can not cause injury. No dif-ference what alls your little one—if full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomach-ache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleansing" should al-ways be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, chilren of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

A pair of horses attached to a coal cart ran away late Monday afternoon and were brought to a standstill when one of the wheels locked with a telephone pole in Main street. Before the compact, Everett Brown, the driver, was unseated and fell to the paving. He received a severe cut in his right cheek and was considerably bruised. At a meeting of the general com-nittee in charge of the present religlous awakening movement in Wester-ly, a sub-committee was appointed to ascertain how many members of the several churches, would be willing to go to Boston for a day, and hear Billy Sunday, the evangelist. If a sufficient number express a desire to make the trip, arrangement will be made for a reservation in the tabernacle for their accommodation.
